

IN THE SPECIFICATION

Please replace the paragraph at page 14, lines 4-18 with the following amended paragraph:

-- Fig. 8B shows the exterior side of fly-flap 330. Fly-flap 330 has four pockets, two laterally opening pockets 340a and 340b, and two pockets 344a and 344b opening towards the ~~top and bottom upper end and the lower end~~ of flap 330, respectively. Pockets 340a and 340b are releasably closed by fasteners 342a and 342b, respectively; pockets 344a and 344b are releasably closed by fasteners 346a and 346b, respectively. Fasteners 342a, 342b and 346a, 346b are preferably zippers, but can also be hook and loop fastener strips, buttons or snap members. When the fly-flap 330 is positioned on the garment 300, the wearer has two pockets 340a, 344a at the upper end of the fly flap positioned on the front of the garment 300 and two pockets 340b, 344b at the lower end of the fly flap positioned on the rear of the garment. Garment 300, unlike garments 20 and 200, does not have corresponding fasteners 38a, 38b or 238a, 238b because here when the user desires to perform bodily functions, the entire fly-flap 330 is completely removed from garment 300.--
